Season 2 Part 11 Song of Songs 4:8

Main Points

- Review
  - In chapter four, Jesus makes the Bride so secure in His love that she turns her entire life over to Him.
  - The King calls the Bride “beautiful” 13 times in the Song of Songs. When the Bride commits to follow the King completely, He declared that she was “altogether beautiful.” When we surrender more and more to Jesus, He releases the knowledge of His love and affirmation to us in an even greater way.
- In verse 8, the King calls the Shulamite, “my Bride.” Again, this shows that she is receiving deeper and greater revelations of the King’s love after giving her life wholeheartedly over to Him.
- The revelation that the church is Jesus’ bride is important because all of history will culminate in the wedding of the Lamb to His bride! Jesus has something very glorious planned for us. Weddings are the highest celebration of a community of people on earth. The great point of the Song of Songs is that Jesus is not just our Savior, but He is also our Husband!
- The King calls the bride out of the “den of lions” and off “the mountain of leopards.” This is a call to spiritual warfare. Jesus wants us to become aware of the nature of the conflict we are in, and train us to fight and win (Ps. 144:1). We have to face the lions and leopards in order ascend to the places with Jesus that He is calling us to. That is we have to warfare to make it to the top of the mountain.
- Jesus spoke to the seven churches in revelation to encourage them to overcome. They had to overcome Satan and his demonic schemes to receive eternal rewards and we do too. Jesus will train us as we go on our journey, but we cannot be passive about spiritual warfare. If we are afraid of Satan or ignore him, we will be not walk in victory.

Discussion Questions

1. What precedes the King's declaration that the Shulamite is "altogether beautiful" and His reference to her as His "bride." What does this express about how Jesus responds to us?
2. Most of us first meet Jesus as our Savior and Lord, and He is definitely those things. Another level of relationship with Him is expressed in the bridal paradigm of the Song of Songs. Why is it important to know Jesus as your Bridegroom? Discuss.
3. What do the dens of lions and mountain of leopards represent?
4. What has been your experience with spiritual warfare? Why is spiritual warfare so critical?
5. Continue the prayer dialogue by asking Jesus to strengthen you to follow Him up the mountain and to train and equip you spiritually to warfare and overcome.
