Main Points

- Modern culture says that everyone must be politically tolerant or correct. Moreover, there is no absolute right and wrong when it comes to religion, sexuality, etc.
- Culture is dictating that to say Jesus is the only way to heaven is not being tolerant. That it is being judgmental and hateful.
- Jesus said in Matthew 7:13-14 “Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it. <sup>14</sup>For the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it.
- The Bible does not teach that everyone is in relationship and good standing with God.
- There is a remnant that is followers of Jesus. See the account of Noah (Gen. 6:6-18 and Rom. 11:1-5).
- Historians all agree that there was a man names Yeshua (Jesus) that lived on earth approximately 2000 years ago. There is too much archeological evidence for anyone to deny this.
- Jesus was and is LORD.
- A prophet would not make the bold claims that Jesus made. “I am the only way to the Father!”
- Alexander the Great was written about 100 years past his death and no one questions the accuracy of the account of Alexander the Great.
- The accounts of Jesus were written by people that were actually with Him. How much more accurate are these accounts of Jesus than that of Alexander the Great?
