

A Baptism of Love: The Jesus of Gethsemane

Scripture

- Song of Songs 4:16

“Awake, O north wind, and come, wind of the south; Make my garden breathe out fragrance. Let its spices be wafted abroad. May my beloved come into his garden and eat its choice fruits!”

- Song of Songs 5:1-11

“I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh along with my balsam. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey. I have drunk my wine and my milk. Eat, friends; Drink and imbibe deeply, O lovers.” I was asleep but my heart was awake. A voice! My beloved was knocking: ‘Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my perfect one! For my head is drenched with dew, My locks with the damp of the night.”

I searched for him but I did not find him; I called him but he did not answer me. My beloved is dazzling and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.
His head is like gold, pure gold; His locks are like clusters of dates...

- Song of Songs 6:1

“Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?” My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of balsam to pasture his flock.
You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my darling, as lovely as Jerusalem Turn your eyes away from me for they have confused me.
