Main Points

- Summary of this series thus far:

  1. We must receive from God. Our walk with God begins with learning how to receive from Jesus.
  2. We must exercise what we receive.

  - God wants us to sit at His feet.
  - We gain strength and momentum through spiritual discipline.
  - Spiritual discipline is doing what is right even when you don’t feel like it.
  - If we want breakthrough, we need to order our ways after the Lord day after day.
  - Law of First Fruits-Giving God the “first” and the “best” from our lives.
     - Give God the first of your:
       - Time
       - Talents
       - Treasures

  - Make your reading of scriptures a prayer dialogue between God and yourself.
  - It’s not about how much scripture you can read, it’s how much you can connect with God through the scripture.

Discussion Questions

1. How are you doing in receiving from God? Are you taking time to sit at the feet of Jesus to worship, read, and listen to Him? What steps can you take to make this more of a daily habit? What are some action steps you need to commit to today? Write them—hang them where you will be prompted to do them.

2. How have you incorporated outflow into your life? Are you balancing receiving with putting God’s Word into the atmosphere around you? Take some time to reflect on the effects of doing this? What are you noticing about your walk with God as a result?

3. Have you begun a habit of beginning the day by giving the first of your moments to God? If so, what would you say are some benefits of this time? If not, why not? Make a goal to do so for one week, then lengthen it to two, then more, etc., You are building a spiritual discipline that is life changing.

4. Keep a log of how your time with God is going and how it impacts the rest of your day. What are you reading? How are you conversing it back to God? How are you using those things in your daily walk?
