Discussion Questions

1. What has been your past thinking about the subject of God's healing in the physical realm?
2. Has this teaching changed your thinking in any way? Write a little here about that.
3. Describe the cooperation that exists between you and the Lord your Healer, as the Israelites also lived out in their worship of God as seen in Exodus 15:26. What does our cooperation with God in the physical look like? How did Rabbi experience this specifically?
4. Take some time to praise your Father today, the God who is your Healer. Confess His healing in any area you may have a need. Track what God does in that area.
