Noah and Lot

Scriptures

- Isaiah 13:9, 11-13 (MEV)

See, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate, and He shall destroy its sinners out of it.

¹¹I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the ruthless. I will make a man more rare than fine gold. Therefore, I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall be shaken out of her place at the wrath of the LORD of Hosts and in the day of His fierce anger.

Discussion Questions

1. As our country, culture, and world move toward embracing homosexuality and show increasing antagonism toward those who oppose it, what Biblical cities do we become increasingly like? What happened to those cities of Sodom and Gomorrah? If God punished those cities, what does it tell us of the certainty of the coming judgement of the world?
2. How did Rabbi distinguish between the sinner and the sin in relationship to sexual sin?
3. Why is sexual sin worse than all other sins, according to the Scriptures?
4. The good news is that if you have struggled with sexual sin (homosexual or heterosexual), there is forgiveness and freedom from the wrath of God to come...Jesus paid the penalty for all our sin. Call on Him today and let us know of your decision.
