- Spirit has domination over the flesh.

Discussion Questions

1. Rabbi said everything we do and say influences the atmosphere around us. How can this be? What should we do in response? What does taking responsibility for our actions and thoughts mean and how does it differ from just positive thinking?
2. Can burnout be a part of a Christian's experience? Have you experienced this or are you now experiencing it? If yes, write a little about it. What is the solution for this?

3. Does God call us to new territory, new ground for Him? How did Rabbi demonstrate this? What keeps us from going forward in Hashem?

4. In Psalm 23:1, David described journeying through death as something not to be feared. What new thing are you fearing currently? Begin to commit this to Father God and allow Him to break through these fears and transform your thinking so that you can move forward in confidence and shalom peace.
