- God is always speaking to us

Discussion Questions

1. In your own words, write what the first key, “acknowledge God in everything” means in your daily living. Use the points Rabbi gave and expand with your own applications.
2. What are some of the ways God speaks to us? Think and write some examples of from your personal walk with Him in which you knew it was God communicating with you. If you are new in this concept, what are some practical ways to bring Jesus to your mind immediately and throughout each day?
How would you like to grow in this area?
3. How will a big picture view of God's presence and work in your life help you recognize God in every circumstance, hard or easy?
4. Do you believe that God wishes to speak to you through His Spirit? Rabbi mentioned that God is referred to as a tongue and as the Word. How can God guide us through others?
5. What about dreams? What Biblical examples did Rabbi give pertaining to guidance through dreams?
