Main Points

- The Song of Songs reveals to us the depth of the love that God feels for us in an emotional way.
- There is a choice that we must make in order to experience God's love, but it is also dependent on Him drawing us to Himself.
- How to draw closer to God
 - Realize that God draws you to Himself first.
 - Make a choice to come to Him when He draws you.
- The only people that get revelation are the people that God gives it to.
- God is calling us into complete unity with Him.
- God wants us to partner with Jesus in His purpose.
- We cannot separate loving God from doing His work in the world.
- Our purposes in the world
 - To know God
 - To make God known

Questions

1. What are the two prayers in vs 4 and what do they really mean?

2. What did Jesus have to say in John 6:44-65 about being drawn? What does this tell us about the origins of the thirst for God that we experience? What is our responsibility in this? Can we pray that God will draw us even more?

3. Our way into God—even our desire--comes through His revelation to us. What does this say to you about God's favor to you personally? Take a moment to thank Him for reaching out to you.

4. How does our free will enter into this?

5. What is required to go to the next step of being held in Him to being unified with Him? Is unity with God a choice? How does the bending or submission of our will show love in the greatest degree to Him?

6. What does doing the work of God have to do with giving God love? Is there something you sense God may be speaking to you about in this area?
