

Experiencing the Supernatural:

Have a Supernatural Mindset

Rabbi Schneider-Shaliach-a Jewish Messenger of Jesus. Sent one!

Scripture

Other Scriptures

- Matthew 16:17
- Ephesians 1:17, 3:18-19
- John 14:16-18

Main Points

- When you realize that God is with you and enjoys you, it will bring a whole new revelation of the love of God and a fellowship and joy into your life.
- God wants to love you and He wants to be loved by you.
- There is an element of impartation that takes place when we put ourselves in an atmosphere where the supernatural is happening.
- We have to work on having a supernatural mindset.
- Revelation produces faith!
- The Holy Spirit is now! Faith is now!

Discussion Questions

1. What is a temptation for people concerning having experiences with the supernatural? What might hold you back from deepening your relationship with our supernatural God?
2. What are some practical helps toward activating your faith and life in supernatural living?
3. What is hope? What is faith?
4. Take time to pray right now that God would open up your supernatural relationship with Him that might currently be purely a cerebral relationship.
5. What about this teaching has helped you most?

