Main Points

- God's Sacred Name in Hebrew is YHWH
- God Almighty in Hebrew is El Shaddai
- Yahweh Yireh is The Lord your Provider in English.
- If we don't understand who God is, we're not going to live fruitful lives.
- Bereshit is the Hebrew transliteration for "in the beginning".
- Elohim is the Hebrew transliteration for God.
- God is multidimensional, and He has relationship within Himself.
- Within the Godhead, there is community.
- God is an "us".
- When you understand that God is "Us", it transforms our worldview.
- God wants us to live in relationship with others with this same type of paradigm.

Discussion Questions

1. What do the names and titles of God reveal to us?
2. According to Rabbi, why is studying the Old Testament and mining for its truth as important as mining the New Testament? Are you regularly connecting with the Old Testament and embracing it as truth for your life? How can a study of God's names jumpstart your relationship with Him?
3. Rabbi related the parable of the talents in Matthew 25. What does this teach us about getting accurate understanding of who God is?
4. El is the Hebrew word for god. Our Father revealed himself as the one true God by adding "him" (pronounced heem). Why did God refer to Himself in plural form? Gen. 1:26 demonstrates this.
5. Grasping the idea that God is One yet 3, is beyond the human ability to understand, yet is true. As we consider our community in the Spirit, with God, how can this help us in our loneliness in this world? Write about your own journey. If you have struggled with isolation and loneliness, how can looking up, rather than out bring relief?
6. What action steps will you take today, as you embark on this study of who God is by name? Write a prayer to Him about what outcomes you would like to see and what He outcomes He wants you to see through knowing Him better?
