Questions

1. Rabbi said the Church's lack of Old Testament or Torah foundation and connection to it has led to softness. What did he mean? Is he calling us back to legalism? What does Jesus have to do with these holy days?
2. Why did the Jews in His day reject him as Messiah? Rabbi is calling Jews today to not be stuck in manmade religion, and Gentiles not to be stuck in their way of thinking which ignores the Hebrew Bible with the Holy Days. Write about what this challenge means for you today.
3. What must we first do in order to celebrate Yom Teruah and incorporate it into our faith practices? Each of the Holy Days is also a Shabbat. Rabbi stressed that God gave the Sabbath to man as a gift. How do we truly celebrate in spirit during the time of Shabbat, and during the Feast what are we remembering, outlined in Exodus 19?
4. What amazing thing happened when the heavenly shofars blew? In whose presence were the people of Israel? How did this seal them as a nation?
5. Will you enter into this Holy Day? How?
