

How
JUDAISM & CHRISTIANITY
SEPARATED

Answer Guide: Does God Have a Son?

DISCOVERING THE JEWISH JESUS

with Rabbi Schneider
A Jewish Believer In Jesus

Does God Have a Son?

EPIISODE 3

Series: How Judaism and Christianity Separated

Introduction

In episodes 1 and 2, we learned that Judaism and Christianity were never supposed to be two separate religions. Rabbi also revealed that it was the jealousy of the Chief Priests and Pharisees that ultimately lead to the Jewish people's generational rejection of Jesus.

Fill in the blanks from Episode 3.

→ In John 5:46, Jesus said, "...if you believed MOSES,
You would believe me."

→ The Jews believed that Jesus had BLASPHEMED
by claiming to be one with the Father. (Mark 2:5-12)

→ Daniel sees Father turn over the world to who?
The Son of Man—JESUS (Daniel 7:13-14)

→ Genesis 1:26 says, “Let US make man in OUR image.” Who was God referring to here? _____

THE TRINITY—FATHER, SON, HOLY SPIRIT

→ Within God there is relationship. God is love. By definition, love needs an object. Who could God have loved before anything was created? THE SON—JESUS
(John 1:18)

→ Read Daniel 7:13–14 followed by John 1:1–3. These verses display the relationship between the Father and the Son.

Key Points

→ Traditional Jews do not believe in the Trinity (Deut 6:4-9)—the mystery of one God being manifest in the three distinct but relational beings of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—as Christians do.

But, scripture (including passages from the Old Testament) support this relationship of God the Father and the Son: See Gen.1:26, 2:24, 18:1; Daniel 7:13–14; John 1:1–3.

→ Christians should understand that the mother of our faith is Judaism. And, as Jesus said in John 4:22, “salvation is from the Jews.”

