A Jewish Believer In Jesus

Inclusion

EPISODE 5

Series: How Judaism and Christianity Separated

Introduction

Jesus did not come to abolish the Law but to fulfill it (Matthew 5:17). Rabbi continues in this episode to explain how Judaism and Christianity came to be two separate religions even though that was never Jesus' intent. Fill in the blanks below as Rabbi unravels the complicated history of Judaism after the Roman destruction of the Temple.

GENTILE

Anyone who is not Jewish

Fill in the blanks from Episode 5.

→ Jesus came to     FULFILL     the Law.

→ Peter was told that what God has cleansed to no longer call     UNHOLY    .

→ “In your seed ALL the nations of the earth shall be BLESSED, because you have obeyed My voice.” Genesis 22:18

→ Orthodox Judaism has an anti-JESUS influence brought about by the Pharisees and their sons who originally rejected Jesus.

→ A Jewish person that believes in Yeshua is called a MESSIANIC Jew.

Key Points

→ Though Jesus says He was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel in Matthew 15:24, in Acts 10 God revealed to Peter that the time had come for the Gospel to be offered to the Gentiles as well.

→ The inclusion of the Gentiles contributed to the separation of Christianity from Judaism.

→ A curse was added to the liturgy of Rabbinic Judaism, developed in 90 AD at the Council of Yavneh, against anyone who didn't follow the way of the Pharisees. This had the affect of forcing Jewish believers in Jesus out of the synagogues.
