DISCOVERING THE JEWISH JESUS

What Was Hidden in the Ark?

The Mystery of the Tabernacle Season 2

Core Message: The Tabernacle reveals a spiritual pattern for drawing near to God and living in His presence. Through the blood of atonement and the scapegoat, Rabbi Schneider emphasizes the forgiveness and removal of sin fulfilled in Yeshua, urging believers to reject ongoing accusations. Aaron's budding rod points to the importance of recognizing and submitting to God's authority. The preserved manna testifies to God's faithful, daily provision and invites us to trust Him with practical needs. Together, these symbols call us to walk in forgiveness, obedience, and confidence in God's care.

Main Bible Verses (NASB):

- Core Memory Verse: (Leviticus 17:11) " For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood by reason of the life that makes atonement."
- (Leviticus 16:21-22) "Then Aaron shall lay both of his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities of the sons of Israel and all their transgressions in regard to all their sins; he shall lay them on the head of the goat and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who stands in readiness. The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to a solitary land; and he shall release the goat in the wilderness."
- (John 14:6) "Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me."

2. How does the scapegoat deepen your understanding of what it means for God to remove sin?

3. What would it look like for you to honor God's authority in His Word and in your relationships this week?

4. In which practical area of life is God inviting you to trust His daily provision rather than depend on your own control?

Application Challenge of the Week:

For seven days, begin each morning by thanking Yeshua for His forgiveness, rejecting one recurring accusation with a truth from Scripture, and entrusting one specific need to God's provision. (Or come up with your own as the Lord leads):
